

Grants Awarded: 2013-2014

School/Instructor	Title	Description
School: Flynn Elementary Instructor: Deb Schrententhaler	Sharing Peace Around the World	In an effort to continue their work for world peace, Flynn received cinch packs, cameras, and maps for students to use to log their family adventures and their own practice of peace.
School: Locust Lane Elementary Instructor: Aimee Dunn	Kinesthetic Learning and Math	Provided Locust Lane with bead racks, a tool like abacus, to help students develop number sense and fluency with addition and subtraction.
School: Manz Elementary Instructor: Angela Axelrod	Phonemic Awareness Program	This program helped struggling readers who are below benchmark in phonemic awareness and phonics by providing them with 30 minute, one-on-one sessions with skilled tutors.
School: McKinley Charter Instructor: Megan McCrakin	Bridges to College Co-enrollment Program	Enabled two students to take the COMPASS test, apply and enroll at CVTC, and pay for non-financial aid eligible classes.
School: McKinley Charter Instructor: Doug Dirmeier	High Interest Physical Education - Ropes Course	Allowed for McKinley students to participate in the UWEC rope course.
School: Meadowview Elementary Instructor: Deb Erickson	High Interest/Low Reading Level EL Books	Provided funding for high interest/low readability books to address the needs of struggling readers.
School: Memorial High Instructor: Kelle Moran	Career in the Arts: Planning your Journey	Guest lecturer Andy Ducett, an award-winning Midwest artist, came to inspire and provide students with practical strategies for developing their talent and achieving their goals.
School: Memorial High Instructor: Tara Myers	Assessment in Physical Education	Granted money for the purchase of heart rate monitors, a tool for assessment in grading students.
School: North High Instructor: Zach Schultz	Grease 2014 Musical	North High School's first musical in nearly 20 years!
School: North High Instructor: Hannah Brown	Science Experiences for the Adaptive Classroom	Provided students in the adaptive science program with opportunities to visit Crystal Cave and the planetarium, as well as improve the courtyards through low maintenance planting and landscaping.
School: Northstar Middle Instructor: Kit Scheifelbein	Bullying Awareness Event	Steve Fitzugh, traveling motivation speaker, gave a challenging presentation on the effects of bullying.

School: Putnam Heights Elementary Instructor: Jean Romanshek	Early Literacy – Libraries for First Readers	Provided new titles of books for the first graders to get them excited, motivated and engaged in reading.
School: South Middle Instructor: Sally Meyer	Corrugated Creations: Community Artist Inspiring Students	Local graphic designer, illustrator, and sculptor Ray Kaselau came to teach 6th and 8th graders about his career as a professional artist and how to make their own corrugated cardboard animal sculptures.
School: South Middle Instructor: Kaycee Rogers	Hmong Heritage Month Enrichment Activities	In its second-annual celebration of Hmong Heritage Month, South Middle School was able to provide after-school activities such as: Hmong language classes, Hmong cultural presentations, and Hmong food workshops.

Notes: we want this page to be fun, and not so texty. We can remove the table format and put pictures next to each description (I will include as many as I can find in Assets) **